

Sit down for the meditation with respect and openness that allows the dominion of the power within and outside of you with surrender as having been realized that you are sitting in front of the Truth.

"Give" all of your attention (yourselves) to That Most Pure; One Source that you belong with everyone and everything.

*